Bible Lesson

What does Matthew 6:9-13 say?

After this manner therefore pray ye,

Our father which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done even in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever. Amen.

Matthew 6:9-13

HISTORY

Historic Quotation

What did Adams say to loyalists?

If ye love wealth better than liberty, the tranquillity of servitude than the animating contest of freedom—go from us in peace. We ask not your counsels or arms. Crouch down and lick the hands which feed you. May your chains sit lightly upon you, and may posterity forget that ye were our countrymen!
— Samuel Adams

HEART'S MUSIC

Thomas Campian (1567 – 1620)

TUNE thy music to thy heart;
Sing thy joy with thanks, and so thy sorrow.
Though devotion needs not art,
Sometime of the poor the rich may borrow.
Strive not yet for curious ways;
Concord pleaseth more the less 'tis strainèd.
Zeal affects not outward praise,
Only strives to show a love unfeignèd.
Love can wondrous things effect,
Sweetest sacrifice all wrath appeasing.
Love the Highest doth respect;
Love alone to Him is ever pleasing.

And delight thyself in the Lord,
and he shall give thee thine heart's desire.
Psalm 37:4
